

Welcome to Laughing All the Way!

Print, cut, and enjoy one quick game per day to sprinkle in smiles, giggles, and connection all season long.

You can go in any order! No right or wrong way to play.

HOW TO PLAY EACH GAME:

- Who Can Sound Like: Take turns using only sounds to act out the prompt. No right or wrong answers — just for fun!
- You Are: Use your body, voice, and facial expressions to become the character or thing in the prompt.
- Make This Face: Freeze your face in a dramatic expression that matches the prompt — try not to make any sound!
- Would You Rather: Take turns answering each question. For extra fun, explain why you chose your answer!
- Plot Twist Story: Use the story title to create a silly tale together! Start with “Once upon a time...” then trade off every few sentences. For a challenge, try to find a way to include the three “plot twists” somewhere in your story.
- Truth or Merry Mischief: Pick Truth to answer a question or Merry Mischief to complete a playful dare!
- Merry Mad Libs: Fill in the blanks with your silliest ideas, then read your hilarious holiday story out loud!

WHO CAN SOUND LIKE...

- an elf who just burned their tongue a little bit on hot chocolate
- a baby polar bear trying to growl for the first time
- reindeer hoofs on the roof (and the reindeer are super excited because it's the first house of the night!)

MAKE THIS FACE:

- You just looked up in the sky and saw Santa's sleigh and he waved at you
- You're just about to open a giant present but then the box starts wiggling and making strange noises...
- Something just poked you in the back and you turn around to see it was a reindeer's antler and Rudolph is staring at you

YOU ARE...

- A baby penguin waddling across the slippery ice for the first time
- A tired but happy elf who just made 3,645 toys and is collapsing on the floor from exhaustion
- The star getting lifted up and put on top of the tree — so excited to show off how bright it can shine

WOULD YOU RATHER...

- ...wear jingle bells around your ankles all year long that jingle wherever you go OR hear the song "Jingle Bells" on repeat all year round?
- ...get around everywhere by riding in Santa's sleigh OR by riding on a reindeer?
- ...have a magical mug of hot cocoa that refills itself whenever you snap OR a magical plate of sugar cookies that refills whenever you say "Cookies please!"?

PLOT TWIST STORY: "THE VERY SHY SNOWMAN"

- Suddenly, a little girl ran by. She was carrying a giant box of cookies, but then she tripped and the cookies went flying...
- Just then, a sweet little old lady walked up and said, "Pardon me, but I think this belongs to you!" She was holding a sparkly, golden ornament with words painted on it that said...
- Then a voice started singing "We Wish You A Merry Christmas." It was the most beautiful singing anyone had ever heard. It was getting louder and louder, until they realized where it was coming from...

WHO CAN SOUND LIKE...

- a grandma taking a bite of the cookies she just baked and realizing she forgot the sugar
- Santa laughing but he's trying to laugh quietly so he doesn't wake up the sleeping kids
- a squirrel who accidentally fell asleep in a Christmas tree at the tree farm and is waking up in some random person's house

MAKE THIS FACE:

- The snowman you just finished building just said, "Sorry to bother you, but do you think you could make my nose a little less crooked?"
- You're smelling a very strong pine tree smell and you just realized it's coming from your own armpit
- You just knocked an ornament off the tree and caught it JUST before it hit the ground

YOU ARE...

- A snowflake falling down from the sky and landing on top of a giant snowman and being so excited to be part of it
- A cold candy cane that accidentally got left out in the snow and then a little kid finally comes and picks you up
- A jar of sprinkles getting sprinkled all over the Christmas cookies

WOULD YOU RATHER...

- ...be able to build a snowman that lasts year-round even when it's hot outside OR make paper snowflakes that turn into real snowflakes?
- ...be able to snap your fingers and make it snow outside OR snap your fingers and automatically decorate the whole neighborhood?
- ...your laugh sound like a deep, jolly Santa laugh OR like a little silly high-pitched elf?

PLOT TWIST STORY: "THE CASE OF THE MISSING CHRISTMAS PAJAMAS"

- Just then, a little squeaky, mischievous laugh could be heard from under a nearby bush.
- "Help! Help! I don't know how to stop this thing!" shouted a voice, and they turned to see a man on a snowboard being pulled by a donkey galloping as fast as he could...
- Suddenly, the smell of cinnamon and apple cider wafted through the air, and that could only mean one thing...

YOU ARE:

- An ice skater doing the most amazing ice skating trick of all time
- A snowball rolling down a hill, getting bigger and bigger until you crash in a big fluffy Christmas tree
- A gingerbread cookie that is sad nobody picked it off the plate and then it finally gets picked

WOULD YOU RATHER...

- ...have everything you eat for a day be gingerbread spice flavored OR turn into a magical gingerbread cookie for a whole day?
- ...have to change your name to Frosty OR have the song "Frosty the Snowman" play whenever you walk into the room?
- ...have to permanently dye your hair candy-cane striped OR only wear candy-cane striped clothes year-round?

WHO CAN SOUND LIKE...

- Two turtle doves cooing back and forth telling each other a funny story
- A gingerbread cookie that comes to life and is so excited it's real
- Mrs. Claus humming a carol but then she accidentally sits down on a pinecone

MAKE THIS FACE:

- You just realized you ripped your pants right down the bottom when you were making a snow angel
- It's snowing outside and you stick out your tongue to try to catch the snowflakes but then you realize it's actually snowing mini marshmallows
- You just realized it's so cold outside you have little snotsicles hanging out of your nose

PLOT TWIST STORY: "THE DAY RUDOLPH'S NOSE COULDN'T STOP CHANGING COLORS"

- "This is a catastrophe!" cried a voice from across the room. "I've lost my lucky candy cane I've been saving for 50 years!"
- A gust of cold wind blew in along with a note that had a riddle on it that read: "Noses are red, gumdrops are blue, what is the thing that makes you truly YOU?"
- Suddenly, an elf named Larry came running up, out of breath, saying, "I've done it! My invention finally works! Quick! Come see!!"

WHO CAN SOUND LIKE...

- A professional chicken caroler bawking "Jingle Bells" for a crowd
- A little kid tasting a candy cane for the first time
- A French hen looking everywhere for its two best French-hen-friends because they're playing hide-and-seek

MAKE THIS FACE:

- You just smelled the most delicious gingerbread cookies baking in the oven and they're going to be done in five minutes
- You just burped and it sounded JUST like "Silent Night" and everyone is very impressed — especially yourself
- You're almost asleep on Christmas Eve but you THINK you just heard sleigh bells jingling outside

YOU ARE...

- A lucky, but stinky, pair of Christmas socks getting washed in the washing machine
- The one lightbulb on the Christmas tree that keeps going out because you're just so tired
- Jack Frost running around nipping at everyone's nose
(no actual nose-nipping please)

WOULD YOU RATHER...

- ...live in a gingerbread house OR live next door to Santa's workshop?
- ...instantly grow a Santa-style beard every time someone says your name (and it disappears after 30 seconds) OR have your nose light up like Rudolph's for 2 minutes every time someone says your name?
- ...have a partridge that lives in a pear tree and squawks to wake you up every morning OR have three French hens that live in your bathroom and always get in your way?

WHO CAN SOUND LIKE...

- A jolly mommy snow owl hooting for her babies to come home for dinner
- A donkey singing its favorite Christmas carol (but can only sing the words "hee-haw")
- Six geese a-laying eggs and honking to each other about how proud they are

MAKE THIS FACE...

- You just looked in the mirror and realized you've grown pointy elf ears and you're not sure if you're dreaming or not
- You just opened a gift from your Great Aunt Mildred — it's a Christmas sweater that has her face embroidered on it and plays polka music when you press the button
- Your nose just started lighting up red like Rudolph

WOULD YOU RATHER...

- ...shrink down to the size of an ornament OR grow to the size of a Christmas tree for a day?
- ...have tiny snowflakes flutter down all around you every time you feel sleepy OR have sprinkles sprinkle down around you whenever you get excited?
- ...be the official cookie taste-tester of the North Pole OR be the official toy-tester at Santa's workshop?

A Note from Mia:

"Laughing All the Way" was born from a simple wish: to help families slow down and find connection in the middle of the holiday rush.

In a season that so often revolves around doing, buying, and checking things off the list, I wanted to create something that brings us back to simply being together: laughing, imagining, and noticing the little moments of joy that make up the best parts of life.

Thank you for your support and for inviting a little piece of Playful Heart into your home this season.

From our family to yours, wishing you a new year filled with warmth, laughter, and moments that remind you how good it feels to play.

Cheering you on always,

A handwritten signature in a cursive script that reads "Mia". To the left of the name is a simple line drawing of a heart.

P.S. If this brought more play and joy into your home, I'd love to help you carry that same energy into the new year!

The Playful Heart Bundle includes the family apps that inspired these daily prompts, plus the Little Moments for Big Laughs collection of easy, silly ideas for connection to keep this spirit of connection through fun going long after the holidays.
